

Survivorcise

An awesome weekly challenge event for school age children taken from the popular TV program Survivor. You will be divided into tribes and learn the value of working together each week to survive the events. From foraging for healthy food, battling pirates, and fun water games - these are just a few of the events that are part of the "Survivorcise" adventure! Imagine the most creative field day you've ever experienced!